We, the people
of India

15(4)

Nothing in this article or in clause (2) of article 29 shall prevent the State from making any special provision for the advancement of any socially and educationally backward classes of citizens

We, the people
of India

15(5) Nothing in this article or in sub-clause (g) of clause (1) of article 19 shall prevent the State from making any special provision,

by making law,

for the advancement of any

in so far as such special provisions relate to their admission to educational institutions including private educational institutions, whether aided or unaided by the State, other than the minority educational institutions referred to in clause (1) of article 30.

We, the people
of India

16(4)

Nothing in this article shall prevent the State from making any provision for the

RESERVATION

of appointments or posts in favour of any backward class of citizens which, in the opinion of the State, is not adequately represented in the services under the State.

We, the people
of India

46

The State

shall promote with special care the educational and economic interests of the weaker sections of the people and shall protect them from social injustice and all forms of exploitation.

We, the people
of India

There should be national debate on what constitutes

15(4 & 5) Socially and educationally
backward classes of citizens,

16(4) Backward class of citizens

46 Weaker sections of society

Constitution has distinguished these from SCs.
